

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

“Certain information about district students is considered directory information and will be released to anyone who follows the procedures for requesting the information unless the parent or guardian objects to the release of the directory information about the student. If you do not want Randolph Field ISD to disclose directory information from your child’s education records without your prior written consent, you must notify the district in writing by September 2, 2011. Randolph Field ISD has designated the following information as directory information: student’s name, address, telephone listing, electronic mail address, photograph, degrees, honors and awards received, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, grade level, most recent educational institution attended, and participation in officially recognized activities and sports, and the weight and height of members of athletic teams.”

Federal law requires a district to provide certain information to military recruiters as well as institution of higher education which includes directory information. The District may or may not (circle one) release my child’s name, address and telephone listing to military recruiters and institutions of higher education upon request without written consent.
