WARNING: Your use of the District’s system is subject to Board policy, any applicable procedures, and the acceptable use guidelines and internet safety plan. You are responsible for reading the contents of applicable documents. Reading the summary below does not remove or lessen your responsibility. The Acceptable Use Guidelines, Board policy, and Internet Safety Plan are on line at www.rfisd.net.

For students, the guidelines include but are not limited to:

1. You are responsible for your system account, your passwords for the account, and the proper use of the systems. Sharing of your network account, allowing the use of your account by another individual, or compromising your password credentials for any system is prohibited.
2. Systems may not be used for illegal purposes, in support of illegal activities or any activity prohibited by District policy, procedures, and guidelines. Any use of the network for commercial purposes or political lobbying is prohibited.
3. The installation of any software or web based applications, including shareware and freeware, for use on Randolph Field ISD systems is prohibited unless specifically authorized by the Director of Technology.
4. Internet access is granted through the Randolph Field ISD network only. Use of phone lines, mobile broadband cards, or other devices for external Internet access is prohibited unless specifically authorized by the Director of Technology.
5. Users shall not intentionally seek information on, obtain copies of, or modify folders, files, other data, or passwords belonging to other users, or pose as other users.
6. No use of the network shall serve to disrupt the use of the network by others. Hardware and/or software shall not be destroyed, modified, or abused in any way. Malicious use of programs that harass other users or infiltrate a computer or computing system and/or damage the software components of a computer or computing system is prohibited.
7. Use of the network to access or process pornographic material is prohibited.
8. Reproduction and/or distribution of digitized copyrighted material without permission and/or in excess of “fair use” are a violation of federal copyright law. Each individual is at personal risk for litigation by the copyright owner.
9. No personnel outside the technology department have administrative access rights to computers on the Randolph Field ISD Electronic Communication and Data Management system.
10. Personal use of the system should be limited. You may, at appropriate times, use the system “as is”. This usage must not impose additional cost, must not use technology staff time, must not require additional hardware or software installation, and must be in compliance with district policies, procedures, and acceptable use guidelines.
11. Any attempt to bypass the Randolph Field ISD Internet Safety Filter or installed monitoring and control software is prohibited.

I will abide by the policies, procedures, Internet safety plan, and acceptable use guidelines for the District’s system.
